Art Unit: 2111

1. Claims 1-28 are presented for examination.
2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-9 and 20-28, drawn to a method of simultaneously passing copies of instructions to trace cache build engine and to issue schedule allocation module, classified in class 712, subclass 214.
 - II. Claims 10-15, drawn to a method of switching to trace cache to pass to allocation module when decoder detects resume condition, classified in class 712, subclass 205.
3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:
Inventions Group I and Group II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the invention of Group I can be used in a system without the switching upon resume condition detection by decoder. The subcombination has separate utility such as use in a system without parallel passing to build engine and to allocation module.
4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and the search required for one group is not required for the other group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
5. Claims 16-19 recite limitations in both inventions of group I and group II. Upon the allowance of the invention of either group, claims 16-19 incorporating any amendment resulting in the allowed group will be allowed. Applicant(s) are advised that if any such allowed claim(s) is/are presented in a continuation or divisional application, the claims of the continuation or divisional application may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 44 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
